

Tuesday, Nov 28th

1. Sky View Leadership Conference will be held on November 30th at 6:00pm in the Ag building. Come listen to speakers talk about opportunities in life, how to present yourself and goals and dreams. Come in FFA official dress or Sunday dress. There will be dinner after! Get your $2 ticket at the finance office to RSVP.
2. Concurrent Enrollment book sales are going on in Miss Hall's room #402!
3. Have you started your resume? Do you have an interview coming up? This week's cereal session is for you. We will be talking about Resume Writing, and Interviewing Skills. This Thursday November 30th during RCK.
4. Tonight is FAFSA Completion Night! Any senior who has not yet completed the FAFSA is invited to come do so, here at school, with expert help. It is from 5 to 7 pm, here at Sky View in the Writing Lab. Please enter the west doors by the flag pole. If you attend, you can apply for a FAFSA Completion Scholarship! More information is available in the Counselor Office or the Career Center.
5. There is a donation box in the Commons for anyone who is feeling the spirit of giving this Christmas season. Smithfield City Youth Council is holding a food drive to put some Christmas dinners together for families in need. Any donations would help. Please put non-perishable items in the box and we will take it from there.
