

Questioning Test Name: _____ Hour: _____

What is Comprehension?

What are four reasons why questioning is a good strategy for comprehending a piece?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.

What are the two categories of questions and each one's four characteristics?

1. _____
 - _____
 - _____
 - _____
 - _____
2. _____
 - _____
 - _____
 - _____
 - _____

List the four types of questions and label them as "Simple" or "Complex"

- | | |
|----------|----------|
| _____ | _____ |
| 1. _____ | 3. _____ |
| 2. _____ | 4. _____ |

Fill in the missing blanks

Factual Questions

A factual question can be answered: _____.

Factual questions check to see if you _____ you have read, but might not help you _____ of the piece.

Evaluative Questions

Evaluative questions ask us to think about something in the piece based on our _____, and the answers can be supported from _____.

Interpretive Questions

Interpretive questions ask readers to look carefully at what happens in the piece (_____) and consider what it means. There are _____ which can be _____ . There should be _____ about whether the _____ are correct because all of the answers are supported from the piece.